About Me!

Daniel Lucas is a former Tucson Police officer, who specializes in many forms of communication. With over seven years in patrol based in Operations Division Midtown, Officer Lucas became the ODM Community Resource Officer. During this time, he was responsible for logistics in a Division of over 70 sworn officers. He also served as a liason between the Division and the local neighborhood associations and City Ward offices.

Due to his success as the ODM CRO, he was promoted to work in the Chief's office as Public Information Officer for 6-1511 and public events. He also worked as liason and support to the local and national media.
